Rep. Balderson Tours "Hidden Gem"

The Port Authority hosted Congressman Troy Balderson for a deep dive look at the defense industry, manufacturing, infrastructure, and workforce development issues important to the Port Authority's Aerospace Center campus. Balderson's stops included six industrial tours, including everything from protein food ingredients to hydrogen fuel cylinders.

A Record Four New Buildings in 2019

In a good year, there's one new building on the Aerospace Center campus. This year? Four! A new Force Lab for the Air Force Primary Standards Laboratory is underway. SeaCo is watching steel skin go on their new 41,000 sq. ft. building. Nature's One is moving dirt for its new 75,000 sq. ft. facility. The 40,000 sq. ft. building pad is ready for a yet-unnamed fourth building. The building boom is a record, surpassing three in 2015.
