$11.3 Million Mortgaged Burned

It's official. The Port Authority's 10-year mortgage with the U.S. Air Force for the purchase of the former Newark AFB was satisfied October 1. The $11.3 million mortgage was ceremoniously burned at the Sept. 28 10-year anniversary celebration hosted by Boeing. Long-time base advocate Wally Horton did the honors with the light provided by Dr. Bob Klingensmith, an original Port Authority Board member.

Parking Lot Enforcement Blitz

It's time to brush up on parking lot safety skills. For some folks new to COATC, it may be worth checking out the parking regulations which are enforceable, in some cases, by towing of your vehicle. The last blitz was successful because it produced zero tickets. We hope for the same this time.
