Port Authority Expects $3.4M Grant

The Port Authority joined an elite group Thursday. Official word of approval of a $3.4 million grant under Ohio's brand new Ohio Job Ready Sites grant program came from Governor Taft. The grant was the result of a multi-partner effort in Pataskala aimed at creating a 305-acre rail-served site with access to U.S. Route 40.

Plus $4.9M in COATC Projects in 2007

Final word is expected Monday on an $885,000 grant for the next phase of roadway improvements at the COATC. The Phase III project envisions connecting James Parkway with Irving Wick Drive through the east side of The Base. A draft master plan is online for review. This project is one of the series of $4.9 million in capital projects planned at the COATC in 2007.
