Three Events of Note This Month

February 26 is The Works' STEMfest

This Sunday, February 26, from Noon to 4 p.m., 15 companies will be at The Works in downtown Newark to show off what they do every day in use of science, technology, engineering, and math. The STEMfest, now in its second year, is The Works centerpiece STEM education effort meant to connect families with companies in Licking County and our region. Plus, it's free!
