"The End of an Era"

Long-time leader of the Newark AFB and Port Authority, Wally Horton, passed away on January 5. As one person remarked at his funeral service, "It's the end of an era." A link to the tribute page containing photos and background materials on Wally are online. Though his impact can't only be measured in mere dollars, one conservative estimate put the economic impact of the metrology and guidance systems repair work in Heath at $10 billion over Wally's lifetime. Impressive era.
