August 16 Brings Dedication Event

U.S. Representative Pat Tiberi will keynote an event to dedicate the new West Entrance façade of the Boeing Building, mark the occasion of the 100th Anniversary of The Boeing Company, and recognize William E. Boeing for his contribution to the aerospace industry. A 2 p.m. ceremony on Tuesday, August 16 is followed by an ice cream social.

Friday Aerospace Center Fact

Some have "Throwback Thursday," but the Port Authority uses Fridays on Facebook to post a weekly look back at the history of the Aerospace Center.

When was the first email? When was that groundbreaking? Who's in that old photo that I once knew? Friday answers those questions.

An Ever-Changing View

The view from Irving-Wick Drive has changed over the fifty years since the road was built. However, the change of view that's occurring right now might be among the biggest changes in that time. Old "Building 2" is down, but for the steel frame. The Horton Building, built in 2011, gains prominence in the visitors' viewpoint now. Keep track of the changes at the Aerospace Center campus with a visit to the Projects Page.
